The night of darkness

Pumpkin lanterns full of light,
open your door and have some fun.
Witches and wizards out in the streets,
Halloween time is finally here.

Tonight is the night when the dead come to life,
when the moon is high and the day is done.
You can run but you just cannot hide, my dear,
tonight is night of Halloween.

Knock on the door for a trick or treat,
at night watching horror films.
Why not?
This is Halloween!
